MANY AT CONGREGATIONAL SUPPER.

Close to 400 members of the First Methodist church gathered at the church last evening for a congregational supper served by the Ladies' Aid society of the church in the new annex. The company gathered in the church audience room, where an informal reception was held by the official board, giving the people also an opportunity to meet Dr. W. D. Parr of Kokomo, Ind., who was a guest of the evening. The tables were laid in the new church dining room and looked very pretty as the company was seated about them. Cut flowers in vases and bowls and glasses and prettily shaded candles and candelabra formed very attractive trimmings. A delicious course supper was served promptly and well. Dr. Parr made a short address in which he congratulated the congregation on its congenial new building, stating that the building is one of the best equipped for Sunday school purposes, that it has ever been his pleasure to visit, and he was quite sure it has no equal at least in Methodism in the country. The members of the congregation were given an opportunity to inspect the new building from top to bottom, and everyone was wonderfully well pleased with it and its equipment. During the serving of the dinner electric music was given. The hours following passed very pleasantly and quickly.

UP-TO-DATE RECIPES.

Chop Suey—One pound ground steak, one-half pound bacon diced, four medium onions sliced, one box spaghetti broken up, one quart bacon and onions brown, add beef, stir to keep from lumping, when beef is well cooked add strained tomato and season to taste. Have spaghetti boiled in salt water and drained, add to sauce and cook few minutes and serve. It is better warmed up than at first. Half of this recipe is enough for a small family.

Baked Ham—Soak ham over night; in morning put in kettle with one onion, two carrots, six cloves, six peppercorns, one bay leaf and cold water to cover. Simmer two hours. Remove skin, place on rack in baking pan, baste often with one cup cider and one cup water in which ham was boiled. Bake from two to three hours. When done stir one tablespoon brown sugar in two of cider, rub over ham and brown. Serve hot with liquor from the pan strained and skimmed.

Here is a typical menu: Vegetable soup, 3 cents; beef stew, 4 cents; baked beans, 3 cents; coffee or cocoa, 2 cents. "No food is given away," said Mrs. Burden, who is chairman of the committee in charge. "There is no relief of any kind connected with the People's Kitchen. This is not only an effort to tide over the families of laborers who are domestic victims of foreign strife, but also a determined movement to raise the food standard and habits of the people of the lowest heads throughout the city, should this prove successful.

The kitchen is located in a district occupied for the most part by longshoremen and day laborers. They keenly appreciate the opportunity given them to purchase food at low price.

Salad Dressing for Coleslaw—Put a lump of butter size of hickory nut in double boiler to melt. Have ready two eggs well beaten, pour melted butter into eggs and beat well. Next take two tablespoons sugar, one-half tea-spoon mustard, a dash of paprika, also one-half teaspoon cornstarch. Put in double boiler and when sugar is dissolved pour in beaten eggs and stir until it thickens.

Mayonnaise Dressing—One cup vinegar, two whole eggs or three yolks,

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) A young couple are to be married. As it happens, I am a very intimate friend of the bride and my brother of the groom. They are to be married in another town at the parsonage and have asked my brother and me to stand with them, and we will be the only ones with them. What should we do during the ceremony?

(2) Should we be the first to congratulate them and what should we say? Should we wait until the minister's wife has congratulated them?

(3) Whose duty is it to pay the minister, my brother's or the groom's? How should it be done? When and what should be said?

(4) How old should a girl be to put up her hair?

(5) I have dark hair and gray eyes. What color would be suitable for an Easter dress? M. V.

(1) There is no cure for thick lips, but sometimes thick lips can be held firmly, thus making them look thinner without spoiling the expression of the mouth.

(2) High heels are worn especially in dance shoes, but have not taken the place of low heels in walking shoes.

(3) When a girl is large or old looking she should do up her hair even if she is only 14 or 15, but usually girls do not do up her hair until she is 17. It is well to regulate the combing of hair to the places she goes. High school girls should do up their hair about their junior year, because it is then that they usually start to go with the boys. A working girl can do up her hair sooner than a school girl.

(4) Dark blue trimmed in a bright color.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I have learned to crochet, but after I have crocheted awhile my arm and shoulder hurt. My arm hurts so that at night I cannot sleep, and at times I cannot lift my arm without its hurting. Will you please tell me what to do to relieve its aching?

YOUNG WIFE. You ought to consult your doctor at once.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THINGS WORTH KNOWING.

To Remove Mildew—Soak article in sour milk and salt and lay in the sun. Or, use chloride of lime made in proportion of a teaspoonful of lime to a quart of water.

Next time you have beans add a dried carrot, a couple of tomatoes cut fine, and one small onion, browned in pork fat, and see what a delicious dish you have.

Ice cream for a cake can be colored a beautiful pink with a small quantity of beet juice. It is inexpensive and absolutely pure.

To cleanse hands from vegetable stains, rub with a slice of raw potato. Iron rust stains may be removed from goods by using sour milk.

To prevent cream from spotting table linen, dip linen in cold water before washing.

White Cake—Waffles of three eggs, two cups sugar, one cup sweet milk, two tablespoons butter, three cups flour, two heaping tablespoons baking powder.

The newspaper special, although always the cutest of the news, is sometimes "scored off" by a colleague. For instance Sir W. H. Russell represented the London Times at O'Connell's trial in Dublin.

In those days the telegraph was unknown, and as the paper wanted to be one better than the Morning Herald, its great rival, Russell hurried back to London by special boat and train to immediately the verdict was pronounced. As he got out of the cab in Paddington square a man in shirt sleeves apparently a printer from the Times, came up and exclaimed, "So glad to see you safe over us." So they have found him guilty?" "Yes, mister, my friend
